Good Morning Claire,

The ERO costs included in GVEA's SRF filing covered expenses incurred from January 2023 through March 2023 as a result of its participation in the RRC Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) that was in effect at that time. The RRC had no funding source until the ERO surcharge was approved. GVEA along with the other Railbelt utilities agreed to fund the RRC until the surcharge was approved. That said, the costs incurred from January 2023 through March 2023 were not included in the ERO surcharge filing because they were incurred prior to the surcharge going into effect. The RRC began billing GVEA its Commission-approved surcharge in April 2023. The costs incurred from that time forward are included in TA366-13.

Please let me know if I can provide any additional information.

Thank you,

Good Morning,

In reviewing GVEA's recent filings, I note that Schedule 17 of TA362-13 states "[in] order to properly represent Administrative & General expense in the current SRF period, it was necessary to add the costs associated with GVEA's obligations to the Railbelt Reliability Council as a load-serving entity." What costs associated with the ERO are not included in the ERO surcharge filing (TA366-13)?

Thanks,

Claire
